Copley-Goggan-Patterson Family
Papers, 1854-1948, nd

Donor: George F. Biehl, Jr.

Processed by: Casey Edward Greene, February 1994

John Goggan (1847-1908) came to Galveston in 1862 from Ireland and went into business with his brother Thomas in 1868. (Thomas had founded the company, later known as Thos. Goggan & Bro., in 1866.) John Goggan and his wife, Aileen, had two daughters, Mary Goggan Johnson and Eveline Goggan Copley. This collection includes miscellaneous papers of the Goggan family, as well as Mrs. Goggan's father, Albert M. Patterson.

Issues of Galveston Daily News, September 13, 1900, and Galveston Tribune, August 18, 1915, have been transferred to Newspapers; see 1900 Storm and 1915 Storm boxes.

The following materials have been transferred to the vertical file:

- 1) One folder of 1900 Storm clippings
- 2) Photocopied clippings regarding the deaths of John Goggan and Eveline Patterson, mother of Mrs. John Goggan
- 3) Tear sheets from the Houston Chronicle, March 6, 1932, and January 15, 1939, regarding Aileen Goggan Copley and Evelyn Copley
- 4) Tear sheet from Galveston Daily News, April 11, 1937, regarding Conway R. Shaw
- 5) Texas, Special Carla Issue, October 18, 1961
- 6) Resolution issued by the Rotary Club of Galveston in memory of George Noble Copley, "the Founder and First President of the Galveston Rotary Club," [1969], and his biographical sketch
- 7) Biehl family genealogy
