Texas Jewish Historical Society.
Scroll Project Records, 1984-1992; 5 inches

Processed by Anna B. Peebler, October 1997

The Scroll Project was organized in conjunction with the 1992 Annual Gathering of the Texas Jewish Historical Society in Galveston. It focused on the Jewish immigrants who came through Galveston from 1907 to 1914 as part of the Galveston Plan. The Scroll does not include all of the immigrants' names because the names were supplied by participating descendants who had to pay for each submitted name.

The collection includes correspondence from the descendants of the immigrants, genealogical charts, and the finished scroll. Research material includes an excerpt from A History of the Sioux City Jewish Community 1869-1969. Clippings pertain to the Scroll Project, the movie West of Hester Street, and the book Galveston: Ellis Island of the West.
