Nine Quartermaster's Bridge Books for the vessel C.W. Woodbury attached to the Galveston base of the U. S. Coast Guard.

The first book includes the list of the officers and men serving aboard the vessel. The vessel's commanding officers were: J.M. Barrett, Chief Boatswain (transferred in February, 1941); J.J. Desmond, Chief Boatswain (transferred in March 1941); and R.M. Sykes, Chief Boatswain (and later promoted to Lt. j.g.).

The books include morning orders and records of miscellaneous events of the day. The vessel was primarily moored at Galveston; trips to Jacksonville, Florida are also recorded.
